Dear Stephen,

You have proven to be one of my best supporters and I am grateful for the trust you have placed in me. It is a great honor and an even greater responsibility to be leading the fight to restore the promise of America.

As a token of my thanks for all you have done for my campaign so far, I am enclosing a commemorative set of photos from the Republican National Convention.

Ann and I had an amazing time in Tampa . . . we were joined by Republican leaders throughout the country who will join with us in restoring our nation -- and putting an end to the disappointments of the Obama years.

Stephen, I was thrilled to offer my solutions to get people back to work and contrast those ideas with President Obama's failed "Big Government" agenda.

The President's 2008 campaign promises quickly gave way to disappointment and division and his re-election campaign has unleashed some of the nastiest attacks our political system has ever seen.

That's why your immediate help is needed!

It costs upwards of a million dollars a week to run a media campaign in each of the battleground states. Your generous continued support will help us answer each and every attack with the truth -- each and every time.

Please help keep our ads on the air in these must-win states with a contribution of $50, $75, $100, or some other amount. The fastest and easiest way to give is to visit our secure website at www.MittRomney.com/Mail.

You can also use the enclosed pre-addressed envelope to return your extra help . . . but at this stage of the campaign, online contributions definitely make a bigger impact sooner -- and save us much-needed campaign expenses.

Over, please . . .

We have just 46 more days to make our case for new leadership. Please do not set my request aside. We have reached the most critical phase and I am counting on my top supporters once again.

As president, I will do everything in my power to bring us together -- because a united America built the strongest economy in the history of the earth and we will do it again.

Stephen, you and I both know that what our country needs is not complicated. And contrary to what big-government liberals believe, it doesn't take a special government commission to tell us what America needs.

What America needs is jobs . . . a lot of jobs.

In the richest country in the history of the world, this Obama economy has crushed the middle class. Today more Americans wake up in poverty than ever before . . . nearly one out of six Americans is living in poverty.

President Obama's policies have failed us and Americans are disappointed in his lack of leadership. This is not the best America can do. It's just the best President Obama can do.

The attacks being leveled at me have reached an all-time high in quantity -- and an all-time low in truth. We must answer these dishonest, desperate, and despicable assaults on my character, record, and vision with the truth.

Please visit www.MittRomney.com/Mail right this minute to contribute $50, $75, $100, or some other amount. Your contribution will show President Obama and his liberal allies that a re-election strategy built on desperate attacks will not succeed.

Sincerely,

Mitt Romney

P.S. With your continued support, we will look back on the convention with pride for it will have captured the beginning of the next chapter of America: one where the promise of America is restored for the next generation and each American is free, safe, and empowered to live his or her best life.
