Dear Mr. Meyers,

It is an incredible honor to serve in the United States Senate.

The hard-working people of Massachusetts elected me to get our nation back on track -- and to make a difference. I am humbled by the faith placed in me by people across Massachusetts and all those around the nation who supported me.

Though I may be a United States Senator, I am still Scott Brown from Wrentham, Massachusetts. I still drive a truck – although now it is parked outside the Capitol. I still get up early in the morning to run. And my daughters still tease me whenever we get together as a family.

I will never forget where I come from. With every vote I cast, I will act in the best interests of the people I represent. I will be thinking about how my friends and neighbors back home would want me to vote.

Though I may now serve in Washington, I will never become Washington. You have my word on that, /Salutation/.

Looking back over these past few months, I still cannot believe how much we accomplished! It all happened so fast, and it is just now sinking in that we changed the course of American politics on January 19th.

Our national grassroots campaign made headlines. From start to finish, it was a thrilling campaign and I am so glad you were part of it.

In fact, I don't know if I will ever be able to thank you for all you did for me. But I know this . . . I would not have won without your generous support. My wife, Gail, and daughters, Ayla and Arianna, join me in sending their thanks.

Over, please . . .

As a small token of my appreciation for all you did to help, enclosed is a photograph from the Election Night Victory celebration. The headline says, "He Did It," but it should say, "We Did It!" Together, we made history!

Because I won office in a Special Election, I will face re-election in less than three short years. I don't have the luxury of a six year term like most newly-elected Senators!

That, coupled with the fact that I will be the #1 target of both the one-party political machine in Massachusetts and liberals all over this country, means we must lay the groundwork now for a winning re-election campaign.

Will you please help build my campaign fund by returning a contribution for one of the amounts suggested on your reply form? You may contribute immediately online at: www.brownforussenate.com/photo.

We may have shocked the Democrats this time, but next time they will be prepared. They know what they're up against now: A nationwide coalition of reformers committed to commonsense leadership in the United States Senate.

You were one of my go-to supporters during the special election campaign, and I hope I can count on your continued generosity for my re-election campaign.

You can return your generous contribution in the enclosed envelope or contribute immediately online at: www.brownforussenate.com/photo.

And please don't hesitate to give me your thoughts and advice as we work on America's toughest issues. I learned a lot from listening to folks I met on the campaign trail. I will continue to look for that advice and counsel as United States Senator from Massachusetts.

Thank you again for everything you did to help me win!

Sincerely,

Scott Brown
Wrentham, Massachusetts

P.S. I have jumped right in and am excited to be working for our common sense Republican agenda of lower taxes, less spending, and a strong national defense. I wouldn't be in a position to make a difference if not for you so, once again, THANK YOU!!
